Hudson Community Foundation awarded Spring Grants - $12,000

Our Purpose: Enhance the quality of life for all Hudson residents, now and for generations to come, supporting philanthropic initiatives in:

Hudson Community Foundation (HCF) awarded more than $12,000 in grants to 10 not-for-profit organizations in or directly serving Hudson. The grants awarded are for charitable projects and activities that address needs and opportunities in the areas of arts, culture, education, environmental, historic preservation, social service and youth that are designed to improve the quality of life in Hudson. This outreach to the community was made possible by the generosity of donors who have contributed to the many funds established at the Foundation. Contributions are accepted throughout the year and can be made online at www.myhcf.org/donate.

For more information on HCF, including to learn about the next deadline for grant applications, call the Hudson office at (330) 655-3580.

May is the month for Lemonade Day in Northeast Ohio

Lemonade Day 2019

HCF is proud to sponsor and partner with The Burton D. Morgan Foundation for the almost 130 students from Eastwoods, Montessori and Seton.

The Lemonade Day program is a community-wide, educational initiative designed to teach children how to start, own and operate their own business—a lemonade stand. HCF provides a grant to support the Hudson elementary-aged entrepreneurs to be enrolled in the program at no cost, as well as, provide loans to the students.

So stop by a lemonade stand in town and support today's youth who may become the business leaders, social advocates, community volunteers and forward-thinking citizens of tomorrow...one lemonade stand at a time!

Contribute Today!

Contributions to HCF can be made online at www.myhcf.org or by calling the Foundation at 330-655-3580.

Founded in 2000, Hudson Community Foundation's mission is to enhance the quality of life in Hudson by increasing charitable giving, educating and connecting donors to community needs and leading on community issues. Supported by hundreds of local donors and Donor Advised Funds, HCF ended 2018 with total assets of $16.7 million. The foundation operates from an office in the historic Baldwin House on Hudson's village green and is governed by a volunteer board of directors.
