

COVID-19

- Serving Those In Need -

In response to the COVID19 health crisis affecting our community, the Hudson Community Foundation has committed to match up to $10,000 in community donations to the Hudson NOW Fund. This Fund supports non-profit organizations located in or directly serving the Hudson community that provide basic needs, such as food assistance and supplies, emergency assistance in the form of utility payments (gas/electric/water) and food vouchers.

We are asking our neighbors in the Hudson community to join us in this effort with a contribution to HCF's NOW Fund. Every dollar of your tax-deductible gift goes to support locally focused charitable programs.

HCF has methods already in place to help the residents across the Hudson City School District in the short and long-term. Many of us are not aware or hear of our fellow residents in need, but HCF works closely to fund the activities of non-profits who are on the front lines of reaching out and filling gaps in available services.

We deeply appreciate the medical professionals, first responders and local businesses who are caring for those directly affected by the virus. Likewise, we are so grateful to our donors who are supporting the work of the non-profit organizations providing valuable resources and assistance. By working together to assist those in need, we will get through this time and emerge stronger than ever.

Founded in 2000, Hudson Community Foundation's mission is to enhance the overall quality of life in Hudson by increasing charitable giving, educating and connecting donors to community needs and leading on community issues. Supported by hundreds of local donors and Donor Advised Funds, we ended 2019 with assets of $22.2 million. The foundation operates from an office in the historic Baldwin House on Hudson's village green and is governed by a volunteer board of directors.
